SENIORS

No words are sufficient to express the gratitude which the Class of 1961 feels toward Mrs. Taylor, class advisor, who helped to make all the class activities possible.

With December approaching the seniors found themselves preparing for the only money-making project of the year, the Senior Play, entitled "You Can't Take It With You." Funds obtained from this function were used to help finance other class activities.

Looking back on the past year we find the Class of 1961 was the first class at Sealth to have a Senior Banquet. It was held on January 25, and helped to unite the class and lay the foundation for the activities which were to follow. The class colors of lavender and white were used in decorations.

The Senior Prom, entitled "Promenade Parisienne," carried out a French theme. It was held on May 29, at the Hub. The decorations included a sidewalk cafe complete with awnings. Programs were white velvet with gold lettering. Music was by the Vern Mallory Orchestra. After the Prom a breakfast was held for the Seniors and their dates.

Baccalaureate services were held in Sealth's auditorium June 4, and the inspiring messages of the evening will long be remembered.

JUNIORS

The Class of '62 started out this year by winning the Cheering Chalice. Then, in early December, the Juniors sponsored the first semi-formal dance of the year, "White Christmas." It was a big success and was well attended.

Toward the end of the year the Juniors were very active in helping the Seniors with their activities. Some of the projects the Juniors helped the Seniors with were: Serving at the breakfast, Prom clean-up, Ushering and helping at Commencement.

The Juniors were very enthusiastic and eager to serve their school this year and did an excellent job. Due credit must also go to Mrs. Berger, class advisor, for her assistance and help in all phases of the class activities.

SOPHOMORES

The class of 1963, whose colors are green and white and whose motto is "Big things are built on small things well done," have done much this year to increase the spirit at Sealth.

Their main project was the Canned Food Drive which they undertook in December. The drive was termed a success in that they received over 500 cans from the student body. These cans of food were given to needy families in this area as Christmas gifts.

In January the Sophomores sponsored their annual dance. The theme was "Wonderland by Night." The dance, which was informal, was termed as very successful.

In April the class put on a clean-up drive.

The Sophomore class, under the skillful direction of Mrs. Diane Tice, will always have a wonderful and successful year to remember.

FRESHMEN

As the year comes to an end, the Freshman Class recalls the happy memories of their first year at Sealth—meeting new friends and teachers, participating in school activities and learning the routines of high school.

Continuing a tradition, the Freshman Class once again sponsored "Hi Day." It was held on Valentines Day, February 14.

A clothing drive during January was another Freshman activity.

"Carousel Capers," the annual Freshman Class dance was held April 22. It was attended by everyone, and termed as a great success.

The Class of 1964 can indeed be proud of their accomplishments this year.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

Much of the credit for the winning tradition being established at Sealth must be attributed to the song and yell leaders. Chosen from 40 aspirants for co-ordination, appearance, and enthusiasm, the performance of these zealous individuals drew considerable praise and universal approval. They accomplished with enormous success their object in maintaining the high pitch of that renowned entity, Sealth Spirit. At the State Tournament in March song queen Mary Ann Neville was chosen as a member of the All State Song Leading Team.

BASKETBALL

The story of the 1960-61 basketball team will long be outstanding in the annals of Sealth athletic achievements. In December, 1960, the predictions of a mediocre season for the Sea Hawks were apparently confirmed when they dropped their first three games. But the new year brought new life, and the team came back to win five in a row. Then they lost two more, and after a one point decision over Lincoln they were faced with mighty Ballard, undefeated and ranked number three in the state. Unawed, the Hawks played brilliant ball in handing the Beavers an astounding 73-61 defeat. Continually improving, Sealth encountered only one more setback during the remainder of the regular season.

Having finished second in the South Division of the Metro League, they had earned the right to meet

Roosevelt, runner-up in the North, for a berth in the State Tournament. The statistics showed that the Teds were sure victors, but the Sea Hawks did not play by statistics. When the game had ended a determined bunch of Sealth men had triumphed 52-41, and they had now gained a reputation for hustle and desire which was to spread throughout the state.

The draw for the State Tournament matched Sealth with Stadium, rated fifth in the state poll. Again with driving fury the gang from Thistle Street rose to great heights to vanquish the Tacoma Tigers 60-47. The next day against Garfield, the eventual state champs, the Hawks were defeated 53-37. In the third session Shadle Park, the Spokane champions and winners-to-be of fourth place, ended our first trip to the tourney by downing the weary Sea Hawks 51-43.

The performances of the Second and Third basketball teams this year promised success for future Sealth Varsity squads. The Second Team, bolstered by determination, good ball handling, and well-balanced scoring managed second place in the South Division. The Third Team was able to muster only one victory, but individual performances indicated encouraging prospects for the coming years. Among the third teamers top prospects appear to be high scorers Chuck Smithers, Jim Norman, and Jack Wike, and ball hawkers Micky Dwyer, Bill Bain, and Mike Gifford. Juniors likely to see extensive varsity play next season are Al Haines, Kelly Nesheim, Bob Dillard, Doug Folsom, and Rick Popovich.

Least publicized on the sports scene at Sealth is the Girls Athletic Association, or GAA. The activities of these girls are many and varied and compose the following list: field hockey, badminton, table tennis, track and field, volleyball, archery, tumbling, basketball, softball, and tennis. The highlight of the year came when the GAA won the all-city volleyball playday at Lincoln High School. On February 22 all of the members enjoyed a snow trip to Snoqualmie Pass.

ORGANIZATIONS

A.S.B. OFFICERS

An organization of which every student is a member, is the Associated Student Body. Headed by its elected officers and appointed committee heads, coupled by the class officers, the A.S.B. coordinates the numerous activities of the school and deals with minor problems which arise during the course of the year.

Assisting with the enforcement of school regulations, is the Advisory Council. The members of this group remind students who break minor rules of their violation and thus lessen the burden on administrative officials.

The Home Room Senate provides a convenient medium between the officers and students. Consisting of a representative from each roll, this group attends weekly meetings and presents the topics there to the members of their Home Room for further discussion.

Under the advisorship of Mr. Lindquist, the A.S.B. completed a very successful and constructive year.

CACHE

This year's Cache Staff consisted of sixteen industrious individuals, chosen for their capabilities in the numerous fields of work involved in producing an annual.

As the school year opened, the planning and production of this year's book was begun under the superb guidance of Mr. David Kroft. At the close of the semester, the staff was disappointed at the loss of Mr. Kroft, as he moved on to a higher position. Mr. Kroft had been the annual advisor since the first edition in 1958.

The momentary confusion and disorganization caused by this unexpected incident was quickly allayed by the addition to the staff of Mr. Dale Hutsell, who efficiently continued the fine job initiated by Mr. Kroft.

Distribution of the annuals climaxed an active and rewarding year for the staff of the '61 Cache.

The SouthWester is a bi-weekly publication dealing primarily with the news happenings in and around Sealth. This year Sealth students have enjoyed 20 editions of the paper.

The SouthWester staff was composed mainly of seniors in their second year of journalism, although some positions were filled by juniors during the second semester.

Fourteen staff members attended the annual Pacific Slope Press Clinic, February 24 and 25, on the University of Washington campus.

The purpose of Sealth's drama classes is to teach fundamental acting techniques and the use of the varied equipment employed in the theatrical medium. In their first year, students learn basic dramatic skills: use of scripts, voice projection, facial and body expression and scenery design.

This year's group of advanced drama students is pictured expressing some of the many emotions they have been taught to duplicate, for the purpose of enhancing the projection of a stage situation. These students are largely responsible for the production of plays during the year. Under the direction of Mrs. Helen Wohlmacher, they gave excellent performances of the Senior Play, "You Can't Take It with You" and the Spring Play, "The Heiress."

The Sealth Singers is the concert choir of Sealth High School. Its members come from all the choral classes and are chosen solely on the basis of their musical and scholastic ability to maintain the high standards of this organization. The Sealth Singers perform for most of the musical events during the school year; during the Christmas program, for special holiday assemblies, annually as one act of the Frolics All-School Show, and in the spring this group is the backbone organization for the planning and performance of a spring musical. Last year's Red Mill and this year's Carousel both drew most of its main characters and vocal leads from the Sealth Singers. Outside organizations very frequently call upon the Sealth Singers for special music—this year the group performed at Seattle Pacific College, Queen Anne High School, at the Grand Ball Room of the Olympic Hotel for the Seattle Federation of Church Women, and for the Boeing Supervisors Club.

Within the Sealth Singers a smaller group is maintained of top singers to perform on occasions where a full choir would not be appropriate—this is the Top Twenty. As a newly formed organization this year the Top Twenty has been kept busy from the Christmas season right through to the end of the school year. Singing engagements have been so frequent that many have had to be refused—the demands on a small group of this type are so great that in future years the Top Twenty will have to limit itself to a set number of engagements monthly in order to avoid hardship to its members.

Pat,
Its been real swell getting to know you this year in World History as well as in voll. You are a swell gal with great abilities and I'm sure you will go far in this big world. Have a fun filled summer and I'll see you again next year. Lots of Luck, Margaret Strike up the Band! Our Sealth Band responds to this command with vivacious tunes at our pep assemblies, while classical music is saved for special performances.

The Band was one of the most active and popular organizations in the school during the past year. As well as practicing every day, they represented Sealth in many ways during the year. They marched in the Santa Claus Parade and in the Spokane Lilac Festival Parade; they gave an exchange concert at Franklin High; they participated in the all-city Band Festival as well as enhancing our school life with numerous performances at sporting events.

They played for the annual Christmas program and joined with the Band to present an instrumental concert, "Music on Parade," and performed at graduation. The orchestra played important supporting roles in the Frolics and the musical, Carousel, as they provided background for both productions. They also performed for the Denny students at assemblies here.

This year has been very active for Cooperative Girls Activities. The President, Merrily Haggerty, has ably presided over all the activities of C.G.A.

C.G.A. has been guided by Miss Trucano, the advisor. She has assisted the girls in their activities and given valuable counsel and time to each committee.

Two parties were given for the new students so that they might become better acquainted. Old students escorted the new students to the parties.

C.G.A. also designed pins and presented them to members according to service given on committees throughout the year.

A hand book was planned and put together.

A Mother-Daughter banquet was given March 22 to honor the mothers of the girls at Sealth.

The C.G.A. sponsored a very successful Tolo on May 6.

The cabinet of C.G.A. felt this year's work had been successful and profitable.
